INTRODUCTION

Three-eyed Fly LLC is a United States company based in the state of Ohio. This policy is in reference to the www.myartgalleryforkids.com and www.three-eyedfly.com websites in which we will refer to the company of Three-eyed Fly as “we, “us”, or “our”. “You” or “your” refers to any person accessing the site, providing information through the site, and/or using the materials provided within the site. At Three-eyed Fly LLC, we respect each individual’s right to personal privacy. We collect and use information through the website, e-mail, and other forms of communication in the ways disclosed in this statement. Your personally identifiable information may be collected by third parties for the purpose of clarifying or completing a sales transaction. This may include any aspect of credit card processing, product handling, and product shipping. In general, these providers will only collect and use the information necessary to perform the services that they provide to us. By accessing or using a third-party link or service, you may be subject to the terms and policies of those links and services. Questions or requests regarding this policy may be directed to the contact provided at the end of this document.

Upon your initiation, we will use your information to respond to customer service inquiries. With your prior authorization, we may occasionally use your contact information to send you a survey or information regarding products, services, or promotions. You may “opt out” of such correspondence at any time by following the simple procedure included in the correspondence.

Your personally identifiable information will never be sold or distributed in any way, by us to a third-party. Through your access and interaction with this site and Three-eyed Fly LLC, you imply acknowledgement, agreement, and consent with our terms and policies. Refusal to provide information required to complete a transaction or receive services from our third-party service providers will likely result in our inability to fulfill your online order.

INFORMATION COLLECTION
